

Welcome to Parris South Elementary. Together with an outstanding group of teachers, support personnel, parents, and students, Parris South Elementary is the first Leader in Me Lighthouse School in the state of Tennessee. In order to uphold this great achievement, we are committed to providing an environment that builds a culture of leadership and engaging students in opportunities to achieve academic success. Our motto is for our students to "Love to Learn, Live to Lead". With all stakeholders working together, we can make a difference in our community, school, and home.
